

Curriculum intent

- The intent of the enterprise and business studies curriculum is that all students develop strong business acumen which is underpinned by a deep understanding of key business concepts. This will support students to be aspirational and successful when they progress into the world of work.
- Through the enterprise and business curriculum, students will also be able to develop an enterprising and ambitious character which will enable them to embrace the range of opportunities that the subject can provide throughout their future.

Threshold Concepts | Students will know and understand that...

	Enterprise and entrepreneurship	Marketing	Business operations	Human Resources	External influences which have an impact on business	Business Finance
Year 10 Small Businesses	The dynamic nature of business Risk and reward The role of business enterprise	Market research Market segmentation Market Mapping Customer needs Customer wants Packaging Branding	Ownership structures Liability Location Business planning	Characteristics of an entrepreneur	Legislation Competition Stakeholders Economy Technology Social factors	Fixed costs Variable costs Revenues Break-even Cash inflow Cash outflow Interest rates Exchange rates Sources of finance
Year 11 Large businesses	Growth strategies Mergers and takeovers Aims and objectives	Price Product Place Promotion Product Range	Production methods Productivity Quality Stock control Customer service Organisational structures	Staff motivation Employee relations Workplace environments Remuneration methods Training Recruitment	Globalisation Pressure groups Ethics Environmental factors	Profitability ratios Gross profit Net profit Sources of finance

Procedural Knowledge | Students will learn and practise...

- | | |
|---|--|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explain how new ideas come about • Understand risk and reward • The role of business Enterprise • What is the role of business enterprise and entrepreneurship • Explain how a can business add value? • Understand customer needs • Understand how a business can meet customer needs • The purpose of market research and market research methods • Use of market segmentation techniques • Use of market mapping • Understand the competitive environment of a business • Business aims and objectives • Understand revenue and how it is calculated • The difference between fixed and variable costs • Understand profit • Understand interest rates • What is meant by break even • Carry out financial calculations • To understand the different types of business ownerships • To know the factors which affect location • To explain the importance of each element of the marketing mix • To know what is included in a business plan and why • To understand the different types of stakeholders, their influence and the conflict which could exits • To understand the different types of technology used by business • To understand the purpose of legislation • To be able to explain the impact of legislation on businesses • To be able to explain the impact of the economic climate on businesses • To understand the importance of external influences on business. | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Growing the business • Business growth • Changes in business aims and objectives • Business and globalisation • Ethics, the environment and business • Making marketing decisions • Product • Price • Promotion • Place • Marketing Mix • Making operational decisions • Business operations • Working with suppliers • Managing quality • The sales process • To be able to carry out finance calculations • To know the different types of organisations structures and ways of working • To explain the importance of effective communications • To compare different jobs and responsibilities • To explain the importance of motivation in the workplace and how to motivate employees • To understand the different types of technology used by business • To understand the purpose of legislation • To be able to explain the impact of legislation on businesses |
|---|--|

Autumn 1	Autumn 2
Concepts and Knowledge Topic 1.1 Enterprise and entrepreneurship Topic 1.2 Spotting a business opportunity Topic 1.3 Putting a business idea into practice	Concepts and Knowledge Topic 1.3 Putting a business idea into practice
Assessment Mini tests at the end of each subtopic Assessments at the end of each topic (60 minutes full paper style) Progress Exam	Assessment Mini tests at the end of each subtopic Assessments at the end of each topic (60 minutes full paper style) Progress Exam
Department Specific • How do new ideas come about? • What are the risks and rewards of a business? • To know the role on enterprise • To understand the concept of market research • To understand the concept of market segmentation and market mapping • To evaluate the competitive environment • To explain the different aims and objectives a business has	Department Specific • To understand the concept and calculate profit, revenue, costs, break even • To be able to interpret ate break even diagrams • To be able to explain the importance of cash to a business and interpret forecast • To understand the different sources of finance for a start-up business
Spring 1	Spring 2
Concepts and Knowledge Topic 1.4 Making the business effective	Concepts and Knowledge Topic 1.4 Making the business effective Topic 1.5 Understanding external influences on business
Assessment Mini tests at the end of each subtopic Assessments at the end of each topic (60 minutes full paper style) Progress Exam	Assessment Mini tests at the end of each subtopic Assessments at the end of each topic (60 minutes full paper style) Progress Exam
Department Specific	Department Specific

- To understand the different types of business ownerships - To know the factors which affect location	- To explain the importance of each element of the marketing mix - To know what is included in a business plan and why - To understand the different types of stakeholders, their influence and the conflict which could exits - To understand the different types of technology used by business - To understand the purpose of legislation To be able to explain the impact of legislation on businesses
Summer 1	Summer 2
Concepts and Knowledge Topic 1.5 Understanding external influences on business	Concepts and Knowledge - Topic 1.5 Understanding external influences on business - Start looking into Theme 2
Assessment Mini tests at the end of each subtopic Assessments at the end of each topic (60 minutes full paper style) Progress Exam	Assessment Mini tests at the end of each subtopic Assessments at the end of each topic (60 minutes full paper style) Progress Exam
Department Specific - To be able to explain the impact of the economic climate on businesses - To understand the importance of external influences on business. - To be able to re-call previous knowledge - To develop exam technique including application - AO3 Analyse and evaluate business information and issues to demonstrate understanding	Department Specific - AO1 Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of business concepts and issues - AO2 Apply knowledge and understanding of business concepts and issues to a variety of contexts - AO3 Analyse and evaluate business information and issues to demonstrate understanding