

iMEDIA Journey on a Page

Curriculum intent

The Creative iMEDIA qualification is aimed at developing knowledge, understanding and practical skills that would be used in the media industry.

Students will learn a variety of skills in planning and creating original digital graphics, applying photoshop skills to a scenario & creating original products.

- The qualification will also help you to develop learning and skills that can be used in other life & work situations, such as thinking about situations, deciding what is required to be successful and exploring & generating original ideas to find imaginative solutions to problems.

Threshold Concepts | Students will know and understand that...

	Pre-production planning	Create a digital product	The Media Industry	Factors in product design	Distribution	Review
Year 10	Plagiarism Components of a Visual identity Plan and design a visual identity Justify a visual identity	Sourcing & preparing assets for a visual identity Create a visual identity product	Media sectors and products Media job roles	Purposes of digital graphics Client requirements and audience segmentation Typography	File Format types Features of media product
Year 11	Conventions of a character & comic Plan and design a character & comic project Legal issues and Health & Safety	Sourcing & preparing assets for a large media product Create a unique character and develop a large media product	Applying media products to sectors Responsibilities of media roles and impact of other roles on products	Media codes Research methods How factors of digital products impact product design	Distribution Platforms Impact of compression on different file formats	Review a character & comic to client requirements

iMEDIA Journey on a Page

Procedural Knowledge | Students will learn and practise how to...

- What is Plagiarism and the implications of not adhering to guidelines.
- Independently planning the visual identity and digital graphic product.
- Produce relevant planning documents for the digital graphic product.
- Identify the details of assets to be used including permissions.
- How to apply tools on assets within Photoshop?
- Learning a variety of Photoshop tools and techniques that can be used to adapt images or text to suit needs.
- Independently create a visual identity and digital graphic to user requirements.
- Prepare and save the assets for use within your digital graphic Independently planning.
- Use image editing software to create your digital graphic including the visual identity.
- Repurpose your digital graphic for online use.
- Evidence and export your digital graphic products.
- Traditional media and New Media sectors.
- Products in the media industry such as video, websites etc.
- Creative, Technical and Senior media job roles.
- Job responsibilities and production phases associated with each role.
- Know the different purposes of media products.
- How style, content and layout are adapted to meet each purpose.
- How to recognise keywords and information in client briefs.
- How to interpret requirements in client briefs to generate ideas and plan.
- Know the different categories of audience Segmentation.
- The reasons for, and benefits of, audience segmentation.
- Interpreting Client Requirements
- Interpreting Target Audiences
- Planning Characters and comics
- Produce an interpretation of the client brief.
- Decide on the target audience, identifying who they are and what would appeal to them.
- Generate original ideas to meet the client brief.
- Explain how your ideas would meet the client brief and appeal to the target audience.
- Research what comic characters are used in the real world.
- Learn about different comic and character features and conventions.
- Create concept designs for a comic character.
- Creating comic planning documents such as mind maps and mood boards.
- Creating a visualisation diagram.
- Developing a storyboard to aid planning of a comic story.
- Writing a report that documents evidence for a project.
- Collating and sourcing assets from secondary research.
- Developing skills in Photoshop such as creating and editing text and shapes.
- Applying effects to assets on Photoshop such as using filters.
- Manipulating objects using tools and techniques such as skew or scaling tools.
- Re-purposing digital assets, for example removing a background from an image.
- Independently using learnt skills to apply on a set scenario on Photoshop.
- Creating an original comic character.
- Creating an original comic character story
- Evidencing and annotating screenshots to explain and justify design decisions.
- Reviewing comic and character to the client requirements and target audience.
- Suggesting recommendations and improvements to the character and comic.

iMEDIA Big Picture Year 10

Autumn 1	Autumn 2
Threshold Concepts: - Pre-production planning Procedural Knowledge: Unit R094: Visual identity and digital graphics - What is Plagiarism? - Independently planning the visual identity and digital graphic product. - Produce relevant planning documents for the digital graphic product. - Identify the details of assets to be used including permissions.	Threshold Concepts: - Create a digital product Procedural Knowledge: Photoshop skills and knowledge - How to apply tools on assets within Photoshop? - Learning a variety of Photoshop tools and techniques that can be used to adapt images or text to suit needs. Unit R094: Visual identity and digital graphics - Independently create a visual identity and digital graphic to user requirements.
Assessment Assessment of coursework produced with feedback and guidance to pupils as per specification.	Assessment Assessment of coursework produced with feedback and guidance to pupils as per specification.
Spring 1	Spring 2
Threshold Concepts: - Create a digital product Procedural Knowledge: Unit R094: Visual identity and digital graphics - Prepare and save the assets for use within your digital graphic Independently planning. - Use image editing software to create your digital graphic including the visual identity. - Repurpose your digital graphic for online use. - Evidence and export your digital graphic products.	Threshold Concepts: - The Media Industry Procedural Knowledge: 1.1 Media industry sectors and products - Traditional media and New Media sectors. - Products in the media industry such as video, websites etc. 1.2 Job roles in the media industry - Creative, Technical and Senior media job roles. - Job responsibilities and production phases associated with each role.
Assessment Assessment of coursework produced with feedback and guidance to pupils as per specification.	Assessment Formative assessment in class and mini tests at the end of each topic.

iMEDIA Big Picture Year 10

Summer 1	Summer 2
Threshold Concepts: - Pre-production planning Procedural Knowledge: 2.1 How style, content and layout are linked to the purpose - Know the different purposes of media products. - How style, content and layout are adapted to meet each purpose. 2.2 Client requirements and how they are defined - How to recognise keywords and information in client briefs. - How to interpret requirements in client briefs to generate ideas and plan. 2.3 Audience demographics and segmentation - Know the different categories of audience Segmentation. - The reasons for, and benefits of, audience segmentation.	Threshold Concepts: - Pre-production planning Procedural Knowledge: Unit R095: Characters and comics - Produce an interpretation of the client brief. - Decide on the target audience, identifying who they are and what would appeal to them. - Generate original ideas to meet the client brief. - Explain how your ideas would meet the client brief and appeal to the target audience.
Assessment Formative assessment in class and mini tests at the end of each topic.	Assessment Assessment of coursework produced with feedback and guidance to pupils as per specification.