

iMEDIA Journey on a Page

Curriculum intent

The Creative iMEDIA qualification is aimed at developing knowledge, understanding and practical skills that would be used in the media industry.

Students will learn a variety of skills in planning and creating original digital graphics, applying photoshop skills to a scenario & creating original products.

- The qualification will also help you to develop learning and skills that can be used in other life & work situations, such as thinking about situations, deciding what is required to be successful and exploring & generating original ideas to find imaginative solutions to problems.

Threshold Concepts | Students will know and understand that...

	Pre-production planning	Create a digital product	The Media Industry	Factors in product design	Distribution	Review
Year 10	Plagiarism Components of a Visual identity Plan and design a visual identity Justify a visual identity	Sourcing & preparing assets for a visual identity Create a visual identity product	Media sectors and products Media job roles	Purposes of digital graphics Client requirements and audience segmentation Typography	File Format types Features of media product
Year 11	Conventions of a character & comic Plan and design a character & comic project Legal issues and Health & Safety	Sourcing & preparing assets for a large media product Create a unique character and develop a large media product	Applying media products to sectors Responsibilities of media roles and impact of other roles on products	Media codes Research methods How factors of digital products impact product design	Distribution Platforms Impact of compression on different file formats	Review a character & comic to client requirements

iMEDIA Journey on a Page

Procedural Knowledge | Students will learn and practise how to...

- What is Plagiarism and the implications of not adhering to guidelines.
- Independently planning the visual identity and digital graphic product.
- Produce relevant planning documents for the digital graphic product.
- Identify the details of assets to be used including permissions.
- How to apply tools on assets within Photoshop?
- Learning a variety of Photoshop tools and techniques that can be used to adapt images or text to suit needs.
- Independently create a visual identity and digital graphic to user requirements.
- Prepare and save the assets for use within your digital graphic Independently planning.
- Use image editing software to create your digital graphic including the visual identity.
- Repurpose your digital graphic for online use.
- Evidence and export your digital graphic products.
- Traditional media and New Media sectors.
- Products in the media industry such as video, websites etc.
- Creative, Technical and Senior media job roles.
- Job responsibilities and production phases associated with each role.
- Know the different purposes of media products.
- How style, content and layout are adapted to meet each purpose.
- How to recognise keywords and information in client briefs.
- How to interpret requirements in client briefs to generate ideas and plan.
- Know the different categories of audience Segmentation.
- The reasons for, and benefits of, audience segmentation.
- Interpreting Client Requirements
- Interpreting Target Audiences
- Planning Characters and comics
- Produce an interpretation of the client brief.
- Decide on the target audience, identifying who they are and what would appeal to them.
- Generate original ideas to meet the client brief.
- Explain how your ideas would meet the client brief and appeal to the target audience.
- Research what comic characters are used in the real world.
- Learn about different comic and character features and conventions.
- Create concept designs for a comic character.
- Creating comic planning documents such as mind maps and mood boards.
- Creating a visualisation diagram.
- Developing a storyboard to aid planning of a comic story.
- Writing a report that documents evidence for a project.
- Collating and sourcing assets from secondary research.
- Developing skills in Photoshop such as creating and editing text and shapes.
- Applying effects to assets on Photoshop such as using filters.
- Manipulating objects using tools and techniques such as skew or scaling tools.
- Re-purposing digital assets, for example removing a background from an image.
- Independently using learnt skills to apply on a set scenario on Photoshop.
- Creating an original comic character.
- Creating an original comic character story
- Evidencing and annotating screenshots to explain and justify design decisions.
- Reviewing comic and character to the client requirements and target audience.
- Suggesting recommendations and improvements to the character and comic.

iMEDIA Big Picture Year 11

Autumn 1	Autumn 2
Threshold Concepts: - Pre-production planning - Create a digital product Procedural Knowledge: Unit R095: Characters and Comics – L01 and L02 - How to source appropriate assets and save accordingly for preparation and use for a digital comic. - Using software skills and tools which support effective character design. - Saving characters in suitable file formats for use as components in comic creation software.	Threshold Concepts: - Create a digital product - Review Procedural Knowledge: Unit R095: Characters and Comics – L02 and L03 - Techniques for combining assets into comic panels Typographical styles, Graphical assets, Focal points and Story flow. - Using generic and specific comic creation software to develop an original comic character and then integrate into an appropriate comic fit for purpose. - Exporting characters for use within comics using suitable file formats and properties. - Techniques to check the technical properties of characters and comics. - Techniques to review characters and comics, including suitability for client requirements. - Suggest Improvements and further developments.
Assessment Assessment of coursework produced with feedback and guidance to pupils as per specification.	Assessment Assessment of coursework produced with feedback and guidance to pupils as per specification.
Spring 1	Spring 2
Threshold Concepts: - The Media Industry - Pre-production planning Procedural Knowledge: Unit R093: Creative iMEDIA in the media industry	Threshold Concepts: - Factors in product design Procedural Knowledge: Unit R093: Creative iMEDIA in the media industry - Components of workplans.

iMEDIA Big Picture Year 11

- Sectors of the media industry: Traditional, new media
- Products in the media industry, video, audio etc
- Job roles in the media industry including Creative, Technical and Senior.
- How style, content and layout are linked to the purpose of digital products.
- Interpreting Client requirements and target audience segmentation.
- Primary and Secondary research methods, research data types
- Media codes, camera techniques and other filming conventions.

- Mind map and mood board components.
- Documents used to design and plan media products such as asset log, flow chart, Script, Storyboard, Visualisation diagram and Wireframe.
- Legal considerations to protect individuals, privacy and permissions, Defamation, Data protection, Protecting intellectual property (IP), Using copyrighted materials.
- Regulation, certification, and classification
- Health and safety risks and hazards in all phases of production, risk assessments and location recces.

Assessment

Formative assessment in class and mini tests at the end of each topic.

Assessment

- Formative assessment in class and mini tests at the end of each topic.

Summer 1

Threshold Concepts:

- Distribution

Procedural Knowledge:

Unit R093: Creative iMEDIA in the media industry

- Distribution platforms and media to reach audiences such as online, physical platforms and physical media.
- Describing Raster/Bitmap or Vector graphics.
- How DPI/PPI relates to resolution and image quality.
- How file format choice relates to use and context.
- Properties and formats of media files, static image formats, audio files and their formats, moving image files and their formats.
- What is lossy and lossless compression.

Assessment

- Formative assessment in class and mini tests at the end of each topic.